

“Literacy for Dialogue in Multilingual Societies”

「多言語社会における対話のためのリテラシー」

Contents

Welcome Frances FISTER-STOGA (Director, Linguapax Asia 2004-2011)	2
Opening Remarks on ‘Dialogue and Society’ Junko HIBIYA (President, International Christian University, Tokyo)	3
From the Editors	4
Digital Divide and Internet Connectedness after the Great East Japan Earthquake Joo-Young JUNG	5
The Maintenance and Preservation of the Surigaonon Language in Cyberspace Francisco Perlas DUMANIG and Maya Khemlani DAVID	19
Literacy Policy in Multicultural Australia Kayoko HASHIMOTO	31
Not Writing as a Key Factor in Language Endangerment: The case of the Ryukyu Islands Patrick HEINRICH	39
Multi-Literacy among Cultural Diasporas Lachman M. KHUBCHANDANI	53
Multilingual Activities in an Elementary School in Yokohama, Japan: An Attempt to Overcome Institutional Monolingualism Atsuko KOISHI	59
Current Trends in Mayan Literacy Joseph DeCHICCHIS	71
Literacy for the Masses: The Conduct and Consequences of the Literacy Campaign in Revolutionary Vietnam Shaun Kingsley MALARNEY	83
Literacy in Multilingual Societies: an endnote John C. MAHER	92
Closing Remarks Dr. Fèlix Martí (Honorary President of Center UNESCO de Catalunya and President of the Linguapax Institute)	102
Contributors	103